DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention 1 in the reply filed on 8/6/07 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 13-26 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/6/07.

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Regarding claim 1, it is not clear from the claim what is the meaning of a first segment of reduced thickness, a reduced thickness should be specified with respect to what other part of the cartridge.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-4, 6-8 and 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Meguro (JP 2001076456).

Regarding claims 1, 6 and 10, Meguro discloses a data storage cartridge (figures 1-13) comprising:

a housing having a top, a bottom, a front side, a back side, a first lateral side, and a second lateral side, the housing having a first media access aperture on the top of the housing (figure 2); and a data storage medium 5 contained within the housing, the data storage medium comprising a disk with a top and a bottom; wherein the front side of the housing contains a first segment of reduced thickness adjacent to the first media access aperture 24 (see figure 3, top part of the cartridge).

Regarding claim 2, Meguro discloses a second media access aperture provided on the bottom of the housing; wherein the front side of the housing contains a second segment of reduced thickness adjacent the second media access aperture 25 (see figure 3, bottom of the cartridge).

Regarding claims 3 and 7, Meguro shows that the first segment of reduced thickness defines an opening extending from a plane defined by the top of the housing to a plane defined by the top of the data storage medium 5 (see figure 3).

Regarding claims 4, 8 and 11, Meguro shows a shutter assembly 61 movable from a closed position to an open position such that the shutter assembly blocks at least part of the first segment of reduced thickness when in the closed position and exposes at least part of the first segment of reduced thickness when in the open position (see figures 21-22).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 5, 9 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Meguro.

Regarding claims 5, 9 and 12, Meguro discloses the data storage cartridge described above. Meguro further discloses that the cartridge could be a magnetic, or a magneto-optical storage medium (see paragraph 0104). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the data storage cartridge of Meguro with a holographic storage medium.

The rationale is as follows: one of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to provide the data storage cartridge of Meguro with a holographic storage medium as doing this would allow to increase the data storage capacity of the cartridge.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
